BRUIN HOOP MEN LEAVE FOR TOUR

Grizzlies Will Play Gonzaga, Idaho and Washington State College.

TEAM RETURNS MONDAY

Eight Men on Squad; Ahern, Straw, Joy Extra Players Taken by Bierman.

The Grizzly basketball team left Monday night on the Milwaukee for its invasion of the northwest. The Bruins will play Gonzaga in Spokane Tuesday night. From the Empire city they travel to Moscow, where two battles will be staged with Idaho. The last two games of the trip will be with Washington State at Pullman. The team will arrive home Monday morning, January 26.

The dopsters say that Gonzaga will be honey for the Bears, but that in Idaho the Grizzlies will strike a snag. Idaho the Grizzlies will strike a snag. Games and the team has many veterans. With the squad turning out before the close of the football season may say Idaho will cop the Northwestern Conference basketball title.

Washington State is always strong because of the coaching of Dr. Bohler, the best hoop coach in the northwest. Bohler's men have had several games the last one in which they defeated the Spokane Athletic club team in a fast game, in which the Cougars led all the way.

Coach Bierman is taking eight men on the trip. They are McKain, Larkin, Olsen, Walterskirchen, Sullivan, Joy, Ahern and Straw. Bierman says that if the squad plays like it did for the first half of the Wesleyan encounter he will be satisfied.

ESSAY SUBJECT NAMED BY HISTORY TEACHER

"The Railroad Problem" is the subject which has been selected by Prof. Paul C. Phillips, head of the history department for the Bennett essay contest for 1920. Mr. Phillips said, "No subject has recently attracted more attention, in political discussions, in the newspapers and in congress than the railroad problem."

Some of the references mentioned by Mr. Phillips are: the Congressional Record in which there is an abundance of material on all sides of the question, the Association of Railway Executives, in New York, is publishing a number of articles in behalf of private ownership and the reports of the interstate commerce commission are also useful.

The prize is the interest on $400, which amounts to about $20. At the option of the winner, a medal may be given in lieu of the money. The principal which makes possible this prize was donated by the Honorable William Jennings Bryan, from a sum left him by the late Philo S. Bennett of Connecticut.

Mr. Phillips will be glad to give any students interested in the contest full information concerning the requirements if they will call at his office in the library.

The final date for the submission of essays is Wednesday, April 28, 1920.

SPECIAL MEETING

There will be a special meeting of the Masquers' club Tuesday afternoon January 20, at 4 o'clock.

Bierman Issues Call

Coach "Bernie" Bierman of the Varsity, just before he left with the basketball five on their invasion of the Northwest, announced that Monday night at 4:10 a meeting of all football candidates would be held in the Forestry building. The purpose of the meeting is to obtain a line on all men who will be eligible for the Varsity next fall, so that the Grizzlies can make the best of the opportunity of the University of Washington game, says Coach Bierman.

HODSON IS CAPTAIN OF CINDER ARTISTS

Letter Men Elect Senior Who Won "M" in High Jump at Northwest Conference

The Varsity letter men in track yesterday elected Lyle Hodson captain of the 1920 Varsity team. Hodson won his "M" last year in the high jump at the Northwest Conference meet, which was held in Pullman, May 15, 1919. The men who voted at the election were Court Toward, Lyle Hodson, Jack Sterling, Clyde Baker and Dwight Carver.

Prospects for a fast cinder team are brighter this year than ever, said Coach Schreiber. All the old letter men are back with the addition of Harry Adams, the fastest sprinter who ever wore a copper, silver and gold jersey. Adams while in the army established a reputation for speed in the sprints. He was captain of the base hospital team at Camp McArthur and won the 100 and 220-yard dash, as well as placing in the broad and high jump.

Jeff Olsen and McGowan, who were members of the A. E. F. team which participated in the Inter-Alleied track meet, will be eligible for the squad and with several other men who have made good high school records, the Grizzly cinder artists should make a good showing in Northwest Conference track events.

LIBRARY HAS RECORD OF BOOKS CHECKED OUT

Five hundred and seventy is the record number of books loaned by the University library to students in one day. The record was made last Thursday.

Many English classes have begun work on source themes and the demand for reference books has been materially increased, according to Gertrude M. Buckhou, University librarian.

PLANS FOR GLEE CLUB NOT YET COMPLETED

Probable Trip to Valley Cities of Songsters to Be in February

"No definite plans have been made yet concerning the trips that the Glee club will take," said Bill Jameson Monday, "but we will probably make the first trip to Stevensville and Hamilton February 20 and 21, then to Deer Lodge and Anaconda on the 27 and 28 of next month. The long trip will be taken during the first two weeks of next quarter. On that trip we will stop in 12 or 14 towns and go as far east as Miles City."

Along with the Glee club will go several men who will compose an orchestra. This group is under the leadership of Brice Toole.

Rangers Seeking Revenge on Young Trust Promoters

The barracks is no longer a safe place for at least two desidents. The short horns may be slow, but when they start they go armed with guns, according to Rex Healy and Don Stevens, the two offenders.

The trouble started when the Wash Basin Trust was formed the first of this quarter with the one object of fooling the public, the public being the short horns.

The stockholders opened business by buying out all of the tin wash basins in Missoula. Then Stevens gave a talk, while Healy demonstrated "How to Keep Clean with Ease." After that you couldn't keep them away. Now every ranger is the proud possessor of a shiny wash basin and the treasury of the trust is filled.

If the members of the trust had quit at this point, there would still have been peace and harmony at the barracks. However, they couldn't let a good thing alone.

Tickets soon made their appearance. There were tickets allowing the holder to have a seat in the library, to fuss on the campus or to climb Mount Sentinel.

The most popular were the tickets allowing the bearer to use any towel in the gymnasium for each punch in the ticket. And there were 20 punches.

At last it dawned upon the minds of the rangers that there was something crooked. They decided upon concerted action and now Don says each one of them sleeps with a six-shooter under his pillow.

The prosperous members of the trust remain in hiding until the rangers are asleep—a short horn goes to bed early—then with their shoes in their hands, they creep in.

Rex says that they have to be very careful, because if one of the short horns should happen to wake up he would probably think it was an Indian and shoot, thereby endangering the lives of the directors of the now extinct trust.

A. S. U. M. WILL ELECT KAIMIN EDITOR THURS.

An A. S. U. M. election will be held next Thursday to elect a successor to Seymour Gorsline, who resigned as editor of the Kaimin several weeks ago.

Eck Mosby and Harry Griffin have announced their intention of running for the office. Eck Mosby acted as editor of the Kaimin at the beginning of the fall quarter, during the absence of Editor Gorsline. He is business manager of the Sentinel and editor of the University News-Bulletin. He also belongs to the national Journalism fraternity, Sigma Delta Chi.

Griffin was appointed by the A. S. U. M. executive committee to fill the position of editor, left vacant by the resignation of Seymour Gorsline, until an election could be held. He is a Senior in the school of journalism and has been a member of the Kaimin staff for three years. He became a member of Sigma Delta Chi in his freshman year in journalism. In the A. S. U. M. election last year he was elected to the office of delegate at large.

GRIZZLY FOOTBALL TEAM TO BATTLE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY IN SEATTLE

Coach C. J. Hunt of Puget Sound Institution Closes Negotiations With Bierman for Early Season Gridiron Contest on Coast.

The Grizzly football team will play the University of Washington in Seattle October 16. A telegram to this effect was received by Coach "Bernie" Bierman yesterday from Coach C. J. Hunt of the Sundodgers. The telegram was in answer to one by Coach Bierman in which he stated under what conditions the Grizzlies would travel to the web-foot country. The financial considerations of the contract were not made public by the Grizzly coach.

Physical Director Schreiber is very much pleased with the recognition awarded to the University by the coast institution. Mr. Schreiber says that the game next fall with Washington is the beginning of a greater era for Montana athletic activities.

Fall practice for the Grizzly squad will begin September 13 or September 20 at the latest, as the game with the Sundodgers comes at such an early date that the Grizzlies must be in midseason form for this encounter. Spring practice will be held for a few weeks in March or April to acquaint the team and freshman candidates with the Bierman system of team work. With the return of 11 letter men and the abundant material from this year's freshman squad, Coach Bierman is sure that the Grizzlies will make a good showing against Washington.

The University of Washington undoubtedly had the best team in the west this year. She met and defeated the strongest teams of two conferences, the Pacific conference and the Northwest conference, and was considered by many as the logical opponent of Harvard at the Carnival of Roses game in Pasadena this year. Basing the ability and prowess of the Washington team on her 1919 record, Hunt's men would have undoubtedly registered a clean victory over Harvard. The University of Washington has won recognition all over the country for her football teams. Under the regime of Gilmore Dobie, now coach of the United Naval academy, University of Washington's football teams were undefeated for a period of nine years. The coast institution loses only a few of her veterans this year and under the tutelage of Coach Hunt is looking forward to one of the best football years in her history.

To Grizzly football enthusiasts the University of Washington game has as much significance as the Syracuse-Montana battle in 1915. The scheduling of the game with the Seattle team will mean the second time that a Montana team has traveled beyond the Cascades.

THE WASHINGTON GAME

There is a wealth of power and strength in a slogan. A slogan is invaluable for its creation of interest and optimism in the future. The University has adopted several slogans during its history. The University has steadily forged ahead as a result. We have had slogans which have spoke for the general advancement of the University. We have also had slogans which expressed the hope of triumph in athletics. In 1915, the words on the lips of every Montana supporter was "Beat Syracuse," when that seemingly invincible eastern football team was scheduled to meet Montana on the gridiron. And Montana did beat Syracuse, not in point of results, but in spirit and the fight that wins. Every member of the Montana team had the "Beat Syracuse" spirit within him and behind him with the result that eastern football prowess took a tumble.

Next fall the Grizzlies meet the best team in the west. The team which represented the University of Washington was without a peer on this side of the Mississippi. Coach Hunt's aggregation was considered by many as the most likely opponent of Harvard at the Pasadena game on New Year's day. We meet practically the same team next year. There are two angles to consider when Montana meets the coast institution. Many argue that Montana has at last won recognition in football by the coast institutions, because the University of Washington first began negotiations for the game. Then again, as the game comes early in the season, it is thought by others that the services of Montana were obtained only to give the coast athletes a practice scrimmage. In all events, it is up to Montana to uphold the first thought and to resent the last. We do not want a Grizzly team entered in a practice game. Our athletic ideals are higher than that.

So along with this idea it seems an excellent time for the birth of a new slogan—"Beat Washington." We have the material. The Freshman squad and the regulars of last year are conclusive proof of this. We have the spirit and the Kaimin would like to see the proper steps taken to assure the early return of every man who plays football. An early season game will require the most efficient use of every hour in training in order that we can put up a team that can stand punishment and give it. The Kaimin would like to see the football candidates in training a month before the game. It is a responsibility we must all share. We must start the ball rolling, until in ourselves the spirit of "Beat Washington" such that we can start the next gridiron season with a punch that cannot be stopped. We can do it. Let's beat Washington.

CO-OPERATION

There is a matter of co-operation which needs the application of a little emphasis. The student body is not co-operating with the editor and business manager of the Sentinel. Thus far only 60 students have had their pictures taken and only 10 days of the allotted time remains. The management of the year book is a difficult task, and even with the best of co-operation by all, the job is a big one. The Sentinel is now an all University publication and being so, deserves as much co-operation as any University undertaking. If you are co-operative, have your pictures taken immediately. February 1st is the last day.

The Well-Dressed Fellows You Meet at School Today Are Wearing Donohue's Clothes

The past season has been the most successful clothing season we have ever had. There is a reason for it—we are specializing in smart, snappy apparel for the college man who is in search of that touch of newness. And style is not the only thing you find in our clothes, for they are made of fabrics that wear, in garments that fit, at prices you like to pay.

BRUINS WIN FROM WESLEYAN IN FIRST BASKETBALL GAME

In Contest That Starts Fast Grizzlies Triumph Over Methodist 36 to 18; Larkin, Sullivan and Olsen Are Bright Stars.

Playing brilliant basketball for a part of the first half the Grizzly hoop artists easily defeated the Montana Wesleyan five Saturday night, 36 to 18. The last half was slow and with a team of substitutes the Grizzly squad played listless ball.

The Bruins appeared for the first time in new suits, gray with gold numerals on the backs. With the blowing of the referee's whistle, the Varsity started with a rush that left the Methodists in a daze. Olsen, right forward, threw four baskets in a row. Before the Helena team could find the basket for a score the varsity had scored 17 points.

Larkin, captain and left forward, played true to form and made three baskets and two free throws in the first half. Sullivan electrified the crowd by playing a wonderful guarding game and scoring with a long throw from the center of the floor. McKain played a good game at center, making every tipoff, but he was unable to find the basket. Haggerty, the lanky Wesleyan center, was the most consistent performer for the visitors, scoring five of the nine points made during the first period. Morris, captain and right guard for the visitors, played a good guarding game and succeeded in breaking up several Montana plays.

The second half was less spirited than the first, the passing being bad and many long unsuccessful tries being made at the basket by both sides. In this period Bierman used his entire second lineup of Spogen, Joy, Ahern and McKoin. With the entrance of Spogen the game for a while livened up but never to the speed of the first few minutes.

Yates taking B. Russell's place at the beginning of the second period was the star of the Wesleyan quintet during this half, making several shots from difficult angles and throwing two free throws. Morris, the Wesleyan captain, was removed in this period for exceeding the personal foul limit. He was the only man removed during the game. Haggerty, the Methodist center, was a dangerous player at all times. The game was marked by a clean playing on both sides.

The lineup was as follows:

State U., 36	Wesleyan, 18
Larkin (Capt.)	G. Russell
Left Forward
Olsen	B. Russell
Right Forward
McKain	Haggerty
Center
Walterskirchen	Bowers
Left Guard
Sullivan	Morris (Capt.)
Right Guard

Field goals—University: Larkin 4, Olsen 4, Sullivan 2, Walterskirchen 2, Ahern 3, Joy 1. Wesleyan: G. Russell 1, Haggerty 1, Morris 1, Yates 3. Free throws—University: Larkin 2, Ahern 1, Joy 1. Wesleyan: Haggerty 4, Yates 2.

Substitutions — University: Straw for McKain, Olsen for Straw, Ahern for Olsen, Joy for Larkin, Spogen for Walterskirchen, McKoin for Olsen.

Bare Facts

Joe Townsend, who claims to be the only member of the original student body, stands chances of being declared a professional. He has played with the Profs too long.

Captain Marvin Wiley of the Whitman team is one of the few "Skip-pers" of collegiate teams not to receive letters for the year they captained the varsity. Wiley was injured so often that he failed to compete in the required number of quarters necessary to receive a capital.

In a closely contested game Friday night, the Aggies succeeded in beating the School of Mines by a score of 24 to 20. Taylor of the Aggies and McAuliffe of the Mines were the bright lights of the game.

The hard cider sop leaned over the counter of the A. S. U. M. store and began to mutter, "Do you suppose—"

"Do I suppose what?" asked McHaffie, and he reached for the can opener.

"Do you suppose that if the star performer of an aerial circus was to lose control of his machine and fall they would call him a meteorite?"

Montana won her first game of the season. There is nothing like a good start. From the looks of things the Frosh had better oil the bell.

This is a good year for the freshman basketball team of "U" of Washington. Some of the best trips ever planned for the frosh five are being contemplated this year.

After the Grizzly contest the Methodists learned that you've got to do more than throw the ball at the hoop and pray.

Larkin, Olsen, McKain, Sullivan and Walterskirchen began the game with the Preachers. Ahern, Joy, Straw, McKoin and Spogen were sent in to finish up.

At a meeting of the Rocky Mountain Athletic conference, a rule was passed imposing a fine of $25 on any team delaying the start of a contest longer than 10 minutes. An additional fine of $1 per minute will be added for each additional minute of delay.

Boxing and wrestling have been made major sports in the Rocky Mountain conference. The frosh won the inter-class wrestling at the Colorado college.

In the high school class, Butte, Billings, Missoula, Bozeman and Anaconda have pretty strong teams. They are all making promises for the district tournaments.

The Aggies annexed another victory at Deer Lodge Saturday night by defeating the Ramblers by a 43 to 26 score.

Some one is going to break them of that habit.

Men are pronouns for they stand for the noun girl.—The Tiger.

How can they do it?

Basketball must run in the family. McAuliffe, a member of the School of Mines, ranks high among intercollegiate stars; John McAuliffe of the Butte high school is showing all state form in interscholastic ball; Virginia McAuliffe, a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, is a top ringer among the co-eds of the University.

Battling all the way, but hopelessly outclassed from the start, Kappa last night met defeat at the hands of Theta, 48 to 25. Although the contest was considered onesided it was a fight from the start to the finish. The superior basketballing of Virginia McAuliffe was one of the big factors in Kappa's defeat.

The first half ended with the score 19 to 9 in favor of the Theta five. The beginning of the second period saw Theta playing faster ball than ever and the score growing larger. McAuliffe and Wagner were the stars for the Theta five, while Newman was the main point winner for the Kappa quintet.

The lineup follows: Theta, Wagner, center, Bruenau and McAuliffe, forwards, Streit and Little, guards. Kappa, Sanders, center; Newman and Dobson, forwards; Bates, Rutherford and Wilson, guards.

In the Kappa-Alpha Phi game, played Friday afternoon Kappa won an uninteresting game, 48 to 2. Lillian Quast was absent from the Alpha Phi line up and without her the sisters were lost.

Tomorrow afternoon Delta Sigma Chi tangles with Craig hall, while Out of Town mixes with Kappa.

LETTER CLUB TO GIVE SECOND HOP OF YEAR

The "M" club will give its second dance of the season next Friday evening. The object of the dance is to raise funds to buy jerseys for the freshman football team. A committee composed of A. Boyd, J. Sterling and C. Spiller are in charge of the arrangements.

A dance was given by the "M" club shortly after the football season for the same purpose. The proceeds from this amounted to $40. This is insufficient to buy the jerseys for the frosh squad, so the club is giving this second dance with the hope of obtaining the necessary funds. "Swede" Dahlberg, president of the "M" club, and the committee in charge are confident that the dance will be one of the best of the season. The members of the club feel that everyone in the school should support this dance as it is for the benefit of the boys that reported for practice each night, to give the varsity practice and take hard knocks with little honor in return. The dance is to be given under the auspices of the A. S. U. M.

"We've got the blues! We've got the blues! We've got the dateless, mateless blues," so sang John Frohlicher, official spokesman of the University Orphan's Home, otherwise known as Simpkins hall. "Boys," cried Lonesome John. "Boys," he said, with a catch in his voice which betrayed a lump in his throat, "Why stand we idle here bemoaning the state of affairs that makes us all feel so er-er-homesick when across yon hedge so many fair ones are languishing within the dull confines of Craig hall. Listen, men, what we need is to remember that good old saying, 'In unity there is strength.' We've got to organize to beat the fussers' trust."

So the boys of the barracks and the dear ones of the dorm have been saved from all danger of nervous prostration caused by worrying over late dates.

Simple. Very simple! A club has been formed to take care of the whole matter. It was born in the living room of Simpkins hall. Whoa! That's not strange at all. Not the scene of organization, but the scene of interest and intended activity is, of course, the reason for the name.

As near as two journalists, who snuck in during the meeting could determine, the main plan is to form a "date bureau." The names of the fair ones of the dorm and those of the unfair (?) ones of the barracks will be put into two hats before a social function and then drawn out in pairs. Thus all the strain and suspense of date making will be over. The formula also calls for a general invasion of the dorm in the near future with the purpose of getting acquainted. The climax of the meeting of the club Monday night came when all men with serious intentions socially were asked to step forward and sign up.

"Boys, we are going to visit the girls and they will feed us chocolate fudge 'n' everything. Better sign up now, or you'll be left out in the cold."

The journalists "as the feller says," left about that time, so the Kaimin is not able to print the complete list of signers. However, we have it from reliable sources that "Pike" Thomas was elected vice president of the Craig hall club, the same "Pike" who is reputed to be high-muck-a-muck of the Simpkins hall Woman Hater's league. "Pike" may not be a piker after all.

U STUDENTS STAY AT MORGUE BUT ARE ALIVE

Norbert Sager and Frank Finch are spending their nights in the morgue. Neither are dead ones, though. Both endure the horrors of their surroundings for a purpose. They are working their way through the University by attending to night calls at the morgue. Sager works at the Funeral Home, while Finch is employed at Marsh's undertaking parlor.

U PROFESSORS ATTEND ATKINSON INAUGURATION

Stone, Scheuch and Bateman Make Addresses; Spaulding Arranges Lectures.

The State University was well represented at the ceremonies attending the inauguration of Alfred Atkinson as the new president of the State College at Bozeman; Acting-president Scheuch, Dean A. L. Stone, Dr. W. G. Bateman and T. C. Spaulding being in attendance from this institution.

A banquet, at which Governor Stewart presided, was held at the Presbyterian church. Speakers, well known along educational lines, delivered addresses. The first speaker was Dean L. H. Bailey, from Cornell University, being followed by Chancellor E. C. Elliott, Professor Scheuch and other speakers representing schools outside the state. Scheuch, representing the State University and the School of Mines, promised co-operation with the college. President Atkinson, in his address, discussed the agricultural situation in the state and outlined the college plans for the future.

At the second meeting the question of irrigation was taken up and discussed in detail by men representing all professions allied, in any respect, to that subject.

At a congress of high school boys, representing 62 of the 83 high schools of the state, Dean A. L. Stone gave a lecture on Journalism.

Captain T. C. Spaulding of the State University arranged for a series of lectures to be given at the University by stock experts for the benefit of the short course rangers. Spaulding also inspected the barracks and housing conditions at the State College.

Following short addresses by Professors W. M. Cobleigh of Bozeman, L. J. Hartzell of the School of Mines, and W. G. Bateman of the University, the new chemistry building, recently erected to take the place of the old one which burned in 1917, was dedicated to the service of the state by Chancellor Elliott.

"It was a very enthusiastic meeting," said Dean Stone, "and the College promises to push ahead under the supervision of such a man as Professor Atkinson."

U GRADING NEAR STANDARD

Jesse Compiles Statistics of Last Quarter's Scholarship.

The University grading for the fall quarter conformed more nearly to the standard of grading adopted in the University than it ever has before. The grading is still above standard, according to Dr. R. H. Jesse, Jr.

Five of the departments which came most nearly to the standard of grading were: modern languages, English, history, psychology and economics. Those which marked above the standard the most were: business administration, forestry, home economics, journalism and fine arts.

The average number of hours carried was 15.4. The average number of grade points was 16.97.

Dr. Jesse says that the percent of students who made "A" grades almost equals the percent who made high averages in the mentality test. This holds true generally through the different grades.

ALICE NIELSON, LYRIC SOPRANO, AT LIBERTY

Famous Singer to Appear in Missoula Through Efforts of De Loss Smith

Alice Nielson, who is to appear at the Liberty next Monday night, is considered America's greatest lyric soprano. She has had wonderful success in her production of records for the Columbia Graphophone company. The records Miss Nielson has made for them include arias from "Madam Butterfly," "La Boheme," "Tosca," "Faust," "Carmen," "Don Giovanni," "Le Nozze di Figaro" and other operas.

But as a singer of the old ballads, the songs that were written and composed years ago when there was less strenuous speed and maybe more sentiment in the world—in these, the real songs of the people, Alice Nielson is supreme.

It is through the effort of DeLoss Smith, dean of the school of music, that Missoula will have the opportunity of hearing Miss Nielson.

Helen Pierson, '23, of Craig hall returned Monday afternoon from Billings where she was called by the illness and death of her mother.
